Today is a special day (Our wedding anniversary) for Bubbe & Zada and we want to share with all of you, who are most special to us, a few words that we hope will guide you going forward in your life's journey.

- Be true to yourself and trust your innate wisdom.
- Show loving kindness to everyone.
- Learn from your mistakes and grow into your future as individuals.
- Be trustful, honest to others and listen with your mind and heart.
- Always make your community a little bit better than you found it.
- Be grateful for all you have and generous with your time and resources.

Remember that Bubbe & Zada love you all very much and are always with you.
