

Dear Neighbors,

We have been living on Gannon Terrace for 44 years. It has always been a wonderful neighborhood and a great place to raise our kids. We are delighted to see the streets again filled with young families. However, as is a trending way of life in many places, many of us are so busy in our individual lives that we no longer know our neighbors, except perhaps by sight.

Bill, who usually thinks globally, would like to see our neighborhood be an example of the way we would like to see our country – many different kinds of people connected to one another in a caring community. We each have our own friends and family, but we hope that you would agree that it would be nice to know, chat and be there for each other if needed. We can certainly be connected through the neighborhood website (for those who do so), but wouldn't it be nice to actually know the faces, the children, the sound of each other's voices, and to feel that we can each contribute in our own way to the wellbeing of our neighborhood/community?

If you are interested in this concept, please call or email us so that we can set up a time to meet and share ideas.
