

Creating a learning team culture process:

Team building: teaching students to work in teams is one of the most important goals of a twenty-first-century teacher. The class will focus on forming the team, building the culture and charter of the team and show the students the similarities to a sports and music team.

We start with

Faber Est Suae Quisque Fortunae
Everyone is the maker of their destiny

- Trust among team members
- Picking the team roles
- Make your team mate a winner
- Complementary Skills
- Enabling the charter (purpose, goals, roles, culture, (values, language, norm))
- Common purpose
- Empower Students to Coach One Another
- Challenge the Teams

- Value Beautiful Work (Quality)
... working like a sports team/ Jazz group

Project for the team: Pick a sports team and find out how they created and maintained their culture.

Team to do:

- Create a project plan
- Develop a set of questions
- Team roles
- How will you contact them and manage the process
- Tabulate the results
- Review and feedback to the Sports team
- Generate report & present
